

GERMANY

1. Germany became a country in _____.
2. How many miles of wall used to divide East Germany from West Germany surrounding the city of Berlin? _____.
3. What is your opinion about selling pieces of the wall as souvenirs? _____

4. In the _____ years that the wall stood, _____ East Germans died trying to get 'over' the wall.
5. _____ is now the capital of the reunified Germany, whereas before _____ was the Capital of West Germany.
6. When Justine went north to the Island of Sylt and visited the nudist beach she displayed the travelling philosophy of. 'when in Rome do as the Romans do...' what does this mean and would you share this view? _____

7. The 'Hay Hotel' in Langeloh, Germany, just like the 'Ice Hotels' in Quebec, and Sweden offer a unique experience for the traveller. Why might you want to stay in a place such as this? _____

8. Why do you think European Trains are more sophisticated and common than in North America? _____

9. As a traveller/tourist you have many choices on how to spend your time. Why would you want to visit a place like Nuremberg that was once the scene of Nazi power and atrocities in WWII? _____

10. Noticing the Frankenstein skit in Ingolstadt was spoken in English... do you think that catering to the English-speaking tourist spoils the experience? _____

11. Justine was travelling through Germany by herself. What are some advantages and disadvantages of going alone? Make a T chart on the back.
12. Munich Numbers – Match the numbers given with the proper description.
7 000 000 6 000 000 $ ¼ billion 8 $3500 12
 _____ number of visitors to Oktoberfest each year _____ number of litres of beer sold in this festival _____ what a barmaid can make during the _____ day celebration _____ the number of steins the 'pro' waitress could carry _____ what Munich makes in revenue from Oktoberfest each year
13. What do you think about tearing down of historic buildings such as Hitler's house in Berchesgaden? _____

14. When will the Christian play be played next in Oberammergau? _____
15. Germany is a world leader in _____